STS OF NJ ANNOUNCES THE 2019 School Bus Driver Safety Seminars

Topics:

“Active Shooter Training”

Active Shooter Training will cover the importance of communication skills, danger areas such as watching the hands, which is where the danger will come from. Being aware of your surroundings such as “JDLR’s” which is somebody or something that “Just Doesn’t Look Right.” The program will include options you have in how to protect yourself in life threatening situations.

“Bus Driver 101 – Getting Back to Basics”

All School Bus Drivers have a daily routine, from pre-trip inspections to driving their routes over and over. Every day becomes repetitious and some drivers become complacent in their responsibilities. “Bus Driver 101 – Getting Back to Basics” will steer those drivers back to reality and make them aware of how important their roles actually are.

Presenter: Gary Moore

Gary Moore is a retired captain of the Missouri State Highway Patrol (MSHP). Captain Moore is a 34 year law enforcement veteran, 29 years with the MSHP, serving in the Governor’s Security Division and is an active Marshall for the Missouri Supreme Court.

Presenter: Ingrid Reitano

Ingrid started her career as a driver in 1975, at Lakewood Schools. She served as a driver trainer, accident officer, union shop steward, assistant transportation coordinator, depot manager for a contractor and Director of Transportation in many districts. She served 4 years as President of the School Transportation Supervisor of NJ, and also headed the New Jersey Safety Team to organize the yearly bus competition for drivers. In 2016 she was voted Administrator of the year. She is recently retired from East Windsor Regional Schools after 30 years in the business. Currently she is the owner of Pupil Transportations Solutions, serves as an expert witness in accident cases, teaches at Rutgers for Transportation Certification and is currently a part time Transportation Manager of Lakewood Public Schools. Her favorite phrase is: “MY BLOOD RUNS YELLOW”

Presenter: Sandra Hanson

Sandra began her career in school transportation in 1983 as a driver, looking to make extra money and to be home with her children. She took the New Jersey Safety Council’s instructor course for Defensive Driving and has been teaching the course ever since. She is a driver trainer and instructor as well as creating her own training programs. In 1989, she went to work in the Cherry Hill School District as an assistant supervisor and later took the Supervisor’s position in Moorestown School District. In 1992 she worked on the Committee for the revising the NJ Department of Education Transportation Manual. She finally landed at Northern Burlington County Regional where she retired in 2016. Through all of the years she has been active in Driver Training and School Bus Rodeo and since retiring, she is back to work as an interim Supervisor for three districts.
